OUR UNIFORM

Our school uniform is changing from September 2021. To be clear on what the changes are please see below.

On non-PE days, pupils should wear:

- Sweatshirts or cardigans must be bottle green and badged (have a logo on).
- Polo-shirts, shirts and blouses must be white. If polo shirts are worn without a cardigan and jumper, they must be badged.
- Trousers, shorts, skirts, culottes and pinafores must be grey - not black.
- White or grey socks and tights please - not black and no patterns.
- Shoes must always be black and "school" style. Flat, plain black boots will be permitted during the colder/wetter winter months. Trainers are not allowed except on PE days. Trainers should be black.
- Watches and small, single-stud earrings can be worn as long as they can be removed independently (i.e. for participation in P.E. lessons). No other jewellery is allowed.
- Hair accessories should be green with minimum detail.
- Long hair should always be tied back where possible.
- Make-up and nail varnish should not be worn.
- In summer, green checked school dresses and grey shorts can be worn. Sandals can be: white or black with minimum detail and must always be worn with socks.

On PE days PE kit should be worn to school. This comprises of:

- Bottle green jogging bottoms, bottle green shorts, bottle green cycling shorts or bottle green skirt. These do not need to be badged. A badged, zipped hoody can be purchased for PE days if parents wish to, however the usual badged sweatshirt can be worn with PE bottoms if parents prefer.
- A badged T-shirt in the house colour
- Black trainers
- Hair should always be tied back on PE days
